

CANCER TALKS: Melanoma/Skin Cancer

People of color are more likely to be diagnosed with melanoma in later stages and have a lower survival rate. Skin Cancer Foundation

INCIDENCE OF MELANOMA IN BERMUDA IS HIGHER THAN WORLDWIDE INCIDENCE RATES

Dr. Chris Fosker, Bermuda Cancer and Health Centre

WHEN

May 2nd, 2019
5:30 - 7:30pm

WHERE

Bermuda Underwater
Exploration Institute (BUEI)

WHAT

Skin Health and Melanoma
Talk with a Panel Discussion

TOPICS

- Understanding and Reducing your Risk
- Signs and Symptoms of Skin Cancer
- Skin Wellness Among People of Colour
- Skin Cancer Treatments

GUESTS

Dr. Deborah Daly
Tereska James, Brown Skin Too Foundation

RSVP

This is a FREE event
Please RSVP at www.chc.bm

OUR SERVICES: MAMMOGRAPHY, BREAST & PROSTATE BIOPSIES, ULTRASOUND SERVICES, BONE DENSITOMETRY, RADIATION THERAPY

236-1001

INFO@CHC.BM

WWW.CHC.BM